DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lourette et al. 5,978,016).

Referring to claims 1-3, Lourette et al. a camera includes a digital imaging means for generating a first digital image of a first resolution in response to an exposure signal; a first storage means for receiving and storing the first digital image generated by the digital imaging means; processing means for selectively generating, in response to a display signal, a second digital image from the first digital image stored in the first storage means; a display screen for receiving and displaying the second digital image generated by the processing means; a second storage means for selectively storing the second digital image generated by the processing means and displayed on the display screen in response to a storage signal (col. 1, lines 51-63).

The second digital image may have a second resolution lower than, equal to, or greater than the first resolution (col. 2, lines 22-24). Lourette et al. further teach a display mode selection switch may be included for selecting the first digital image or the second digital image for display (col. 4, lines 19-21).

Art Unit: 2676

In regard to claim 4, Lourette et al. teach a full resolution and full size digital working image is generated and stored in the working memory 124 (a first memory) (Fig. 6) in each image capture mode (col. 12, lines 3-5).

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See PTO-892 form.

Anderson (U.S. Patent No. 6,278,447) discloses a method of display an image in multiple resolutions.
